Simpson Athletic Facilities — 3 —

Simpson student-athletes train and compete in some of the finest small college facilities in the Midwest. Currently, 40 percent of Simpson students participate in intercollegiate athletics, while over 60 percent participate in the intramural program. A wide range of facilities are provided at Simpson to accommodate the needs of the athletes participating in each of the 18 intercollegiate sports.

In the past five years, the Simpson athletic facilities have undergone a major expansion and renovation. The process began with the opening of the Carse Fitness Center in 1996. The facility which is for use to Simpson students, athletes, faculty and Simpson Athletic Club members, was named in honor of Wayne (1950) and Jimmie Lou Carse. The center was constructed with the help of numerous donations.

The Carse Center is home to a variety of different facilities. The 5,000 square-foot weight room contains an 18-station circuit area around the perimeter, a 30 square-foot free weight area and a 750 square-foot dumbbell area. In addition to the weights, the weight room contains three treadmills, three stationary bikes, a stair stepping machine and a rowing machine. While working out, individuals are entertained by a 200 watt stereo system that completes the training facility.

The 4,000 square-foot Darrah Wrestling Room became the new home to Simpson's wrestling team. The room is complete with new mats protecting the floor and walls. The eight-inch padded floor enables the wrestling room to also be used for dance and aerobics, accommodating campus-wide interests. The room is named in recognition of Robert L. Darrah, former wrestling coach at Simpson College, in honor of his distinguished career and service to the sport of wrestling.

Two regulation racquetball courts, Hubbell Court and Kent Court, are also included in the new wing. The two courts can also be set up for walleyball, which was incorporated into the intramural program last year. The courts were named in honor of James and Helen Hubbell and James and Irene Kent in appreciation of their interest in Simpson College and generous support to the Cowles-Hopper Project.

In addition to the new athletic areas, administrative space was expanded with the Carse Fitness Center. The Ballantine Conference Room is used for various departmental meetings and was named in appreciation of the loyal interest of Morley Cowles Ballantine in Simpson College and her generous support of the Cowles-Hopper Project. Increased office space in the new wing added accommodations for up to five full-and part-time coaches. The Downing Coaches Office is named in honor of D. Robert Downing, Class of 1963, and Arden Kildal Downing, Class of 1962, for their continued support of Simpson.

To ensure the facilities are being used in the proper fashion, Simpson installed a security system active with surveillance cameras to record all activity in the building. This system allows the facility manager access to any misconduct within the building and helps monitor peak activity throughout the day, week and month.

The Cowles Center prides itself on being a multipurpose athletic and physical education facility. The Cowles Fieldhouse was expanded during the summer of 1998. The area was expanded in order to house a 160-meter track. With the extension of the area, indoor batting cages will be easily accessible for the Simpson baseball and softball teams. A new wood floor was purchased for basketball and with its arrangement, up to 3,000 fans can be accommodated in the fieldhouse. An elevator was installed to increase handicap accessibility.

Additional Cowles features include a 25-meter swimming pool, sauna, sun deck, men's and women's locker rooms, training rooms, physical education classrooms and the main athletic office. A new filter system and liner was installed in the swimming pool during the summer of 1997, upgrading the quality of the pool used for not only the women's swim team, but for numerous rehabilitation and practice sessions for all sports.

Adjacent to Cowles stands Hopper Gymnasium, a building dedicated in 1912 which now serves as a practice and intramural facility. Hopper has a basketball court, overhead running track and offices for coaches. A new Mondo surface was placed on the running track in December 1996 before the men's and women's track teams began their indoor training season, allowing for additional space when winter and spring sports overlap and present usage problems in the field house.

The Hopper structure, which had not been touched since its construction, underwent a major renovation which spanned from the fall of 1997 to the summer of 1998. New men's and women's locker rooms, including a total of nearly 300 new lockers were built. Also added were coaches' and women officials' locker room. A new training room was established and placed within the training center, as well as additional improvements in existing offices. The entire building was wired for new computer access.

Simpson's outdoor athletic facilities allow student-athletes the opportunity to excel in football, softball, baseball, track and field, soccer, tennis and/or golf. Bill Buxton Stadium is the home for Storm football and soccer. The Stadium was remodeled with a state-of-the-art playing surface (Astro-Play), and an eight-lane running track during the Summer of 2001. Bill Buxton Stadium is now able to host football, soccer, and track events. In addition to a remodeled press box, the stadium received a new concession stand and bathroom facilities which were opened in time for the 1997 season.

The men's and women's golf teams train at the Deer Run Golf Course and Indianola Golf and Country Club which are conveniently located within one mile of campus.

The six Richard Buxton Memorial Tennis Courts are located on the northwest side of campus, bordering Simpson's McBride Baseball Field and the Simpson Softball Complex, home of the 1997, and 1999 NCAA Division III national championship softball teams. McBride Baseball Field was named in honor of former President Robert E. McBride who helped Simpson embark on a new era of athletics. Both McBride Field and Simpson Softball Complex received new press boxes which contain concession stands during the Spring of 2000.

Step onto the campus of Simpson College and you will notice a surprising harmony between past and present. Throughout the campus turn-of-the-century grandeur works in tandem with modern design creating a visual unity. Everywhere you look Simpson has sought to blend historical with contemporary and it is this effort that serves as a metaphor for the college's approach to teaching and learning: embrace the past yet look toward the future.

Simpson faculty members' dedication to their students and perspective fields is evident. Seventy-four percent of Simpson's full-time teaching faculty members have earned the highest degrees in their fields. Additionally, classes are taught by the professors not graduate assistants providing a unique learning environment vital to the quality of the student's education and personal growth. With a student-faculty ratio of 14 to 1 students are able to interact with their professors on a more personal level while professors are able to challenge and guide each student to their full potential. Simpson's faculty also recognizes the important contributions of the multicultural and international communities to the emergence of important ideas and values.

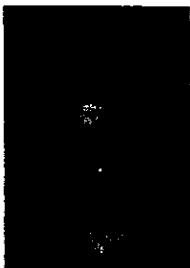

At Simpson learning goes beyond the classroom. Students may take part in global study opportunities in places such as Germany, Austria, Italy, France, Spain, Greece, England, Mexico, China and Russia through Simpson's International Program. The theatre and music department at Simpson also provide diverse experiences. Theatre Simpson presents about eight performances each year, including mainstage productions, opera, and many student produced shows. A theatre tour of England is offered every other year. The music department, recognized nationally for excellence in its vocal and instrumental music programs also tours nationally and internationally. Other ways to capture the total Simpson experience is through its extracurricular activities. Eighty-four percent of Simpson students participate and enjoy involvement in a number of activities such as student government, newspaper, year-book, KSTM radio, intramural sports, student associations, Greek organizations, departmental clubs, honor and professional societies and religious organizations.

Simpson is a Division III school of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and a member of the Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (IIAC). Students have the opportunity to compete in 18 different varsity sports. Coaches and faculty are not only supportive of Simpson athletics, but they maintain education as a top priority. Student-athletes are serious about their education and are able to successfully balance their studies with athletics. Simpson students train and compete in some of the finest small-college facilities in the Midwest. The outdoor facilities have ranked among the best for years, while a $3.1 million expansion and renovation project of Cowles-Hopper Gymnasium upgraded the indoor facilities, keeping pace with the growing level of talented athletes choosing to attend Simpson.

Venture off campus and you will discover another of Simpson's strengths, that of its host community, Indianola. Indianola is a vibrant town of approximately 12,000 people only 12 miles from Des Moines, Iowa's capital and largest metropolitan area. In this regard Simpson offers the best of both worlds: big-city sophistication and small-town charm. Combine that with a reputation for excellence and it's easy to see why Simpson continues to be recognized nationally.

Still what makes Simpson a great place to be is what has made it great ever since its founding in 1860, educating students in the best sense of the liberal arts tradition.

Head Coach John Sirianni — 5 —

John Sirianni is among the top 30 active Division III baseball coaches in wins and winning percentage

John Sirianni is in his 21st year as head baseball coach at Simpson College. Since his arrival in 1985, the Storm have won at least 30 games four times and at least 20 games 14 times. Sirianni has led the Storm to six NCAA Tournaments (1990, 1991, 1992, 1994, 1999, and 2004), three conference titles (1987, 1991, 1994), and two Iowa Conference Tournament championships (1994, 2004). Simpson became the first Iowa team to advance to the NCAA Division III National Tournament in 1991.

Sirianni was named Iowa Conference Coach of the Year for the sixth time in 2004 after leading the Storm to the IAC Tournament Championship. Sirianni has been named NCAA Region Coach of the Year on two occasions (1987, 1991).

His 20-year record stands at 466-275-2 (a .627 winning percentage).

Sirianni's 466 wins are the 25th most among active Division III coaches and are 39th all-time in Division III. His .627 winning percentage is 43rd among active D-3 coaches and is 48th all-time in D-3. Since 1990, Simpson is 37th among all Division III programs in wins with 378.

Sirianni has directed 75 All-Conference performers while 24 have garnered All-Region honors. Three players (Joel Johnson-first team, Joe Blake Jr. and Ryan Cooley-third team) have been selected as All-Americans. Six of Sirianni's former players have signed professional contracts.

Even more impressively, 43 of Sirianni's former players have become baseball coaches with 12 working at the college level. Three have won Iowa high school state championships as head coaches (Eddie Mauro twice at Dowling Catholic, Brad Rose twice at Ottumwa, and Eric Trudo at Van Meter). Two others served as assistants (Ryan Cooley at Valley and Brian Baker at Carlisle) for teams that have won an Iowa high school state title.

Prior to his arrival at Simpson, Sirianni compiled a 105-65 record at Nevada and Indianola High Schools. His high school teams won three conference titles and one sectional crown. He has also served as an assistant coach at West Des Moines Dowling High School and Iowa State University during his 29-year career.

As the Simpson athletic director, Sirianni has led the Storm to the top of the Iowa Conference. He has also brought regional and national recognition to the programs. In the past 19 years, Simpson has won two NCAA Division III National Championships (the 1997 and 1999 softball titles). Twelve different Simpson teams have combined for 50 Iowa Conference titles. The Storm have earned numerous regional and national tournament berths and 15 top-four NCAA Division III team finishes.

Sirianni has been instrumental in making major improvements in the Iowa Conference baseball structure. Such improvements include the initiation of fall practices and new IAC regular season and conference tournament schedules.

Sirianni was inducted into the Iowa High School Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in February of 1998. He has served as a member of the NCAA baseball rules committee and as a member of the Baseball America Division III Top 30 poll committee. A 1972 graduate of Iowa State, Sirianni was a two-year letterwinner at second base for the Cyclones. He received his master's degree from Iowa State in 1982.

After a 2004 season in which Simpson was two games away from the NCAA Division III National Tournament, the Storm will have to build on that momentum without several key players who were lost to graduation or who elected not to return. Here is a look at Simpson by position:

PITCHING: Senior righty Shawn Parker anchors the staff. The two-time first team All-Conference selection, led the squad in wins (8), strikeouts (64), innings pitched (75), and complete games (7) last season. His back-to-back nine-inning complete games in the IIAC and NCAA Regional Tournaments were important parts to the Storm playoff run a year ago.

The coaching staff expects senior Wade Samo, junior Terry Beavers, and sophomore Chad Scieszinski to move from the bullpen to claim spots in the starting rotation. Samo appeared in 11 games starting four and went 1-2 with a 6.49 ERA. Samo struck out 18 in 26.1 innings of work. He is expected to join the team upon the conclusion of wrestling season.

Beavers was the winning pitcher in the IIAC Tournament Championship game against Wartburg. He pitched in 15 varsity games, starting one and posted a 2-2 record with a 6.75 ERA. Beavers struck out 26 in 22.2 innings. Scieszinski moved up from the JV to the varsity late in the season and appeared in six varsity games (starting one). He did not record a decision but struck out six in nine innings of work.

"We are very pleased with our pitching staff," said Simpson Head Coach John Sirianni. "We have an excellent blend of quality experience and youth. Shawn has been very good for us over the last three years and we expect another fine year from him. Wade, Terry, and Chad have developed very well and they are ready to carry the load. All three of these young men have very good stuff and we are counting on them a great deal."

The coaching staff expects Indian Hills C.C. transfer Mark Voelliger, and freshmen Trent Kain, Jake Ritchey, and Keaton Sansgaard to dress for the varsity this season. Voelliger was a member of the Indian Hills C.C. team that went to the NJCAA Division I National Tournament last season. He did not record a decision on the mound, but struck out eight in 15 2/3 innings.

Kain was named second team All-Conference three times for Prairie City-Monroe High School. Ritchey earned All-State, All-District, and All-Conference honors as a junior and as a senior for I-35 High School. Sansgaard was chosen first team All-Conference, first team All-District, and Academic All-Conference as a senior for Ballard High School.

"Mark brings a great deal of very successful experience to our program," Sirianni said. "We are expecting Trent, Jake, and Keaton to contribute to the success of our pitching staff. All three were very successful high school pitchers."

CATCHING: The good news for the Storm is that Jon Clanton, a second team All-Conference selection two years ago returns. The bad news is that IIAC MVP Dan Rieck (who also saw time at third base a year ago) transferred to Washington (Mo.) to finish his engineering degree. Clanton is expected to be the #1 catcher. In 2003, Clanton led team in hitting (.379), and tied for the team lead in home runs (6) with two others.

Sophomores AJ Wieck and Blake Rieman should serve as the backups. Wieck was primarily the bullpen catcher for the varsity as a freshman. He did start the majority of the JV games in 2004. Rieman was a member of the baseball team at Iowa Lakes C.C. as a freshman. As a senior at Newell-Fonda High School, he was named second team All-State, first team All-Conference, and second team All-District as a senior.

"We are extremely pleased to have Jon back behind the plate after successful shoulder surgery," Sirianni said. "Jon is a quality player and a great leader"

INFIELD: Senior Chris Beall and junior Chris Cyronek both return to the starting lineup, but are expected to change positions. Beall is expected to move from first base to third base this season. After transferring to Simpson from Marshalltown C.C., Beall broke the school record for games played as he started all 47 varsity games. He hit .344 with six home runs and 38 RBI's. Cyronek moves from shortstop to second base. Cyronek was fourth on the team in hitting with a .377 average. He charted two home runs and 31 RBI's.

"Chris and Chris were very instrumental in last year's success," said Sirianni. "We are not sure where they will end up defensively, but we do know that we need both of them to have another great year at the plate."

With the position shifts, it creates openings at first and shortstop. At first, senior Joey Young or junior Justin Stoullil should see time. Whoever doesn't play first, the other should be the designated hitter. Young has played third base and the outfield during his career. Young reset school record for doubles in a career last season as he had 14. He enters 2005 with 32 doubles. Young hit .301 with six home runs and 28 RBI's last season.

Stoullil used the JV to make the switch from catcher to first base last season. Stoullil appeared in 13 varsity games, starting four. He had two hits in 17 at-bats and posted first varsity home run, a three run job, in the NCAA Regional Tournament against Carthage.

"Joey is in his second year as a team captain and we expect him to provide great leadership," Sirianni said. "We also expect him to return to his sophomore hitting form and be a key part of the game. Justin has a great deal of talent and we are hoping he can consistently demonstrate that talent at the plate."

Four players, juniors Ross Anderson and Mike Turnure along with sophomores TJ Kasperbauer and Kelly Wilson are expected to battle it out for the shortstop's job. Anderson appeared in 17 varsity games last season, he had two hits in 15 at-bats. He could see some time in the outfield as well. Turnure came to Simpson last season from Iowa Western C.C. where he was a two-year letterwinner. He did not play in 2004 while he concentrated on academics.

Kasperbauer was used primarily as a pinch-runner in eight varsity games last season. Wilson transferred to Simpson from Iowa State. He was named honorable mention All-Conference as a senior for Urbandale High School.

"We are looking at several different options at shortstop," Sirianni said. "Ross, Mike, TJ, and Kelly all have the potential to play there. Ross is an excellent athlete and will see action in both the infield and the outfield."

OUTFIELD: Two-year starter and letterwinner Dusty Kain anchors the outfield from center. An All-American football player for Simpson, Kain was named second team All-Conference in baseball as a sophomore. He hit .312 with 18 RBI's with 15 stolen bases. He charted five triples and was 64th (0.11 per game) in the category. There is also a possibility that Kain could move to shortstop to take advantage of his athletic ability.

Junior James Brown is expected to take over the leftfield job. Brown played in 37 varsity games, starting 12 last season. He hit .340 with one home run and 11 RBI's.

Rightfield is expected to be patrolled by Iowa Central transfer Brook Beisell. Beisell hit .322 with two home runs and 25 RBI's for Iowa Central as the Tritons finished fourth at the NJCAA Division II National Tournament in 2004. He should also see time as the Storm closer.

"Dusty and James both have great speed and are excellent defensive outfielders," Sirianni said. "We also expect them both to play a big role in our offense. Brooke comes from a quality program at Iowa Central where he was has been a part of a world series team. He brings a great deal of talent and great work ethic. We expect him to be a key part of this year's success."

The Storm won their first game, 9-4 over McMurry (Texas) May 20. The Storm led 1-0, and 2-1 before the Indians took a 3-2 in the third. Simpson went into the lead for good in the fourth when Troy Hatten smacked a two-run home run. The two RBI's gave Hatten the school record for most RBI's in a season, breaking Ed Johnson's 1988 school record.

McMurry cut the lead to 4-3 in the seventh. Simpson went ahead 5-3 in the bottom of the frame on a Dan Rieck sacrifice fly. The Storm put the game away with four runs in the eighth. Mike Donnenwerth led off the inning with a home run. Two batters later, Brett Murphy hit a two-run home run. Rieck singled later in the inning to plate James Brown.

Simpson scored one run in the top of the eighth and had the tying run at the plate in the top of the ninth, but Aurora pitcher Adam Hutton struck out Fjetland to end the game. Donnenwerth went 3-4 with two RBI's to lead Simpson. Beall and Fjetland each had two hits.

Simpson was eliminated from the tournament as Carthage defeated the Storm 14-7 in the second game on May 22. Errors quieted the Storm, as Simpson committed six errors which led to six Redmen runs. Carthage took a 1-0 lead after a 1/2 inning. Cyronck tied the game with a single that plated Donnenwerth. The Redmen took a 3-1 lead in the top of the third, but Simpson had a chance to take the lead in the third. After Rieck drove in Fjetland with a sacrifice fly to make it 3-2, the Storm loaded the bases with one out, but Carthage pitcher Zach Smigel got Cyronck to pop out to short and Murphy to ground out to short to end the inning. Simpson tied the game at 3-3 in the fourth when Rieck drove in Fjetland with a single. Fjetland broke the school record for most stolen bases in a single season with his 30th (old mark was 29 by Brent Clark in 1988). Donnenwerth put the Storm ahead with a single up the middle to score Hatten. Carthage tied the game again in the top of the fifth on a Justin Hallock sacrifice fly. Warren Even's single which scored Erick Krull put the Redmen ahead 5-4 in the top of the sixth. Ryan McCulley's sacrifice fly in the top of the seventh put Carthage in the lead 6-4. The Redmen added four more runs in the eighth and four in the ninth. Donnenwerth went 4-4 to lead the Storm. Formed in 1922, the Iowa Conference begins its 83rd season this fall. Representatives of 12 Iowa Colleges met on Dec. 8, 1922, to form the "Iowa Intercollegiate Athletics Association." Charter members included Buena Vista, Central, Ellsworth, Iowa Wesleyan, Luther, Morningside, Parsons College, St. Ambrose, Simpson, Upper Iowa, Western Union, and William Penn. Des Moines University was voted into the conference at the meeting as well.

The first conference constitution was published in January of 1923. Later that year, Judge Hubert Utterback of Des Moines, Iowa was named the first conference commissioner and Iowa Teachers' College (now Northern Iowa) was accepted as a member. Loras (then known as Columbia College) was admitted in 1926. Ellsworth left the conference in 1927. That spring the conference name was changed to the "Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic Conference."

After a three-year ban, athletics were reinstated at the University of Dubuque in 1928, and it joined the conference in 1929. Morningside dropped out in 1936 because of inactivity. Wartburg was admitted later that year and it began competition in 1937.

William Penn was suspended from the conference in 1949 for using ineligible players. The school was readmitted in 1951, though it did not compete in football until later. In 1951, St. Ambrose and Loras dropped from football competition.

The conference was reorganized in 1953, effective with the 1954-55 school year. Buena Vista, Central, Dubuque, Iowa Wesleyan, Luther, Parsons College, Simpson, Upper Iowa, and Wartburg stayed while St. Ambrose and Loras were dropped because they were too strong for others and Westmar (formerly Western Union) and William Penn were dropped because they were too weak. Iowa Wesleyan and Parsons College left the conference in the 1960s.

William Penn was readmitted once again in 1960, effective in the spring of 1962. The conference denied a proposal to sanction women's competition in 1960. Women's sports would become a part of the conference effective in the 1982-83 season.

Loras was readmitted in 1986 increasing the membership to nine. The conference would remain at nine until the 1997-98 season when former Midwest Conference members Coe and Cornell were admitted for all sports except football. Coe and Cornell began playing Iowa Conference football in the fall of 1998. William Penn left the conference in the Summer of 2001 while Upper Iowa moved to NCAA Division II in 2003 to bring the league to its current nine-team lineup.

John Cochrane, formerly of the NCAA, was hired as the league's first full-time commissioner in the summer of 2001. He was joined in the IIAC Office by Will Wolper, who became the IIAC's first full-time Sports Information Director in the Fall of 2001.

The first collegiate women's basketball game was played in 1893 on the Smith campus by Smith women. That event set in motion the series of advancements that have made the collegiate game and the Smith program successful.

Smith basketball mirrors the greater competitiveness of today's women's game and much is demanded of a Smith basketball player, but the rewards are high. Smith plays a challenging non-conference schedule and competes in the highly competitive New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC), which is granted an automatic bid to the NCAA Division III Tournament.

Shelley Harrison '06

The basketball program has seen some outstanding talent through the years. In addition to eight 1,000 point scorers, the program boasts an All-American, two Academic All-Americans, and two NEWMAC Players for the Year as well as numerous NEWMAC All Conference and Academic All Conference team members. The goal for Smith basketball is to continue to build upon the success of the program with athletes who are dedicated to educating both the mind and body, while striving for excellence in the classroom and on the court.

2005-06 Outlook

The 2005-06 basketball team will have a mix of veteran players and youth. Senior Shelley Harrison, one of the top players for Smith the past three years and who led the team last season in scoring, rebounding and blocked shots before departing to study abroad second semester, will pose the inside threat for the Pioneers' inside-out game. Harrison was ranked nationally in the top fifteen in blocked shots her first two seasons. Transfer Nati Lenchner, in her second and last season for Smith, has experience and the ability to score to balance Harrison's inside attack. In addition to Harrison, the Pioneers will have some good size inside and look to sophomores Jennifer Lindsey, Jannah Handy and Maria Holmes to vie for the forward and post positions.

Competing for the nod at the point guard position are sophomore transfer Ashley Sutton and first year Sarah Posnak. Jenn Daley and Crystal Diehl, both who played valuable minutes last season, will provide experience and depth in the backcourt.

In addition to Posnak, first year arrivals that could make an immediate impact and help the team climb the NEWMAC ladder include versatile forward-guard Meredith Murelli, powerful post-forward Jessie Paull, and guard Rosie Baldwin.

Smith's lacrosse team begins its traditional season indoors during the first week of February, practicing stick skills in the college's full-sized Indoor Track & Tennis Facility until the weather permits a move outside. During the 2006 spring break, the team will travel to West Palm Beach to compete against top Division III teams.

2006 Outlook

With fourteen players from the young 2005 squad returning in 2006, the Pioneers look to improve upon last year's record. The offense will be led by junior Katie Tucker who tallied fourteen goals last year. Adding scoring power and depth to the attack will be incoming first year Blair Rapalyea (Manchester Essex Regional) and tri-captain Anna Lee Harris, who moved from defense to attack last season and tallied some critical goals for the Pioneers. Veterans Johanna Landherr and Julia Voorhees will bolster the Smith attack. Susie Parke-Sutherland, the team's leading scorer in 2005, returns to the midfield along with Seven Sisters All Tournament team selection Sarah Barksdale and tri-captain Betsy Nickle. Sophomore twins Lesley and Lindsey Aldrich along with tri-captain Brea Stump add depth and experience to the midfield. NEWMAC All Conference second team selection Sara Smith and classmate Alexandra Gorin, who shared goalkeeping duties last season, return to protect the net and anchor the Pioneers defense. In front of them protecting the goal will be Leigh Ann Gardiner and Siobhan O'Riordan. With the core of the team returning, the Pioneers look to move up in the NEWMAC standings.

2005 Season Outlook

Coach Torricelli's Thoughts

The 2005 season is here and the make up of this ball club is outstanding. It is fair to say that I love this group of guys for a variety of reasons. The level of talent on this team is very high. We have more quality depth in our line up than ever before. We have seen the tides turn over the last couple of years and it is quite exciting to see the image of the SCI program rise in the community and central Illinois. A great deal of credit goes directly to the members of this program. These guys are quality individuals and a tight knit unit. We have some improving to do before it is all said and done but the ability to rise above is within this group of 25 guys.

The coaching staff is fired up over this group. The energy level is at an all time high and we are ready to let the conference know that it was not a fluke to be three outs away from a regional championship as was the case of the 2004 team. It will be the character of these players, their leaders and their coaches to work together, to pull for one another and to strive to make each other better. There is no reason for animosity among them, only the will to do what is asked of them when it is their time to shine. The program enters its sixth year of existence and finishing among the leaders is the only acceptable outcome.

The 2005 roster consists of 25 talented local players. There are 11 returning lettermen from last year's 29 and 27 team. We add 14 freshmen to total 25. Last year, we set our goals for a repeat 30 win season and a chance to play on the final day of the regional tournament. The goals for 2005 will stay the same, with one exception, a conference title.

We have seen the program go from sub 500 seasons to back-to-back 500+ seasons. It will be up to these players to keep the ship headed in the right direction.

Among the 25 players will be 12 pitchers. Our biggest weakness this year will be in our inexperience on the mound. We return only 4 pitchers from last years ball club. The bright spot is we have changed our look if you will. We are not a big hard throwing staff; we are relying on our location and our command to compensate for our lack of velocity. This staff will throw strikes and work at a defensive friendly pace. This group is young and green but hard working and willing to battle. There are 8 right-handers and 4 left-handers. Three of the pitchers will also see time on the field as position players. We will need to play excellent defense behind this group if we are going to be successful and reach this year's goals. Our staff is fewer than in years past, which will allow more innings to go around. I hope with the additional innings per player, we will get the experience we need quicker than in years past. Our fall went above average, as a group. We still need to eliminate the silly mistakes and stay out of jams when we can. By doing so, I like our chances this spring.

While our pitching staff is young, our infield is almost the opposite. We return three guys who all played considerably last year. I feel that our infield is as good as anyone's in the conference. It is rewarding to see the new guys buy into our philosophies and conference. We have added quality players to round out this group. The infield corps consists of 8 guys, the same number as last year. We have 6 guys who could play second, or third and three or four guys who could play shortstop. This is exciting to the program to have such quality and depth as we begin our difficult 56-game schedule. There are 3 guys that will see time at first base. These infielders are a very versatile group who work hard. The reward comes in seeing the older guys make the transition from their freshman year to their sophomore year. They are leading by example, teaching and showing the younger guys how to understand the defensive schemes and how to compete for us the way we want them to. Our motto stays the same for this group of guys, make all the routine plays and occasionally that spectacular play. I want to emphasize that this group will win or lose close ball games for us.

The outfield is made up of 6 very athletic guys. We have two returnees who saw ample time last year, which makes this group somewhat experienced. As a whole, this corps of guys is very quick. They all possess average or above average arm strength. We feel that this group has some play-making ability. This group still needs to strengthen their reads and angles to the ball. This might be the fastest group of outfielders we have ever fielded. As the season goes on and we find the right combinations, I believe this group will be very solid.

The catching unit returns one letterman and adds two additional freshmen. This is a very strong group, who has taken on the difficult task of learning a young, new pitching staff. All three of these guys bring individual strengths in the art of catching. This athletic group of guys could also double as DH's. The focus of this group will be to excel above their current level of ability. (Stronger arms, better receivers, handling the pitchers, calling a game, blocking etc...) All three of these guys offer pop in their bat, which will add to our run production.

Over the fall we peaked early beating teams with wood, as they swung metal. This is directly related to the rise in talent level across the board. We played very well for two thirds of the fall and relaxed the last third. We will have to fight all spring to accomplish our goals.

The off season conditioning seemed to be more of the same in the sense that the guys that enjoy lifting worked out and those that don't like lifting gave the same token efforts. The winter pre-practice season will be a little easier as the program just purchased $6000.00 in weight equipment. This will put us in the best possible shape leading up to our opener on March 5th. This opportunity was never incorporated into our daily practice plans before and we are excited to see the results.

The offense has a nice blend of possibilities. We have speed, power, pop, bat handlers and a few guys that offer the threat of the long ball. We will still stay aggressive in our offensive strategies when we are in the situation to do so.

The 05' schedule begins March 6th and wraps up May 7th. Dividing the schedule into thirds, we see ourselves playing 12 games before spring break, 10 in Arizona during spring break, and 36 games after spring break. We have 24 Conference games and 34 non-Conference games. We open up our season with 3 Region games vs. Shawnee that will play a huge part in the seeding process for the Regional Tournament. Newcomers to the schedule include College of Dupage, Elgin Community College, Seward County and Fort Scott Community College. The conference schedule has rotated once again. The conference schedule starts with Danville and LLCC, week 1; John Wood and Lincoln, week two; Parkland and Lewis & Clark, week 3; and Spoon River and Illinois Central wrap up the conference schedule. Pre-Season rankings will probably place 5 or 6 teams nationally ranked in the top 20 in their respected division.

As stated in past media guides, our approach to the game remains the same. We will play the game the way it is supposed to be played. We will respect all, but fear none. We will hustle, our uniforms will be dirty when the game is over. We will play with class and pride stressing fundamentals, responsibilities and positive emotion. Team is the number one word in our program. We are a family and we will always be a family. Our group is extremely close and I know it will pay off in the end.

Steve Torricelli

Head Coach / Director of Athletics

Steve Torricelli's dream to coach baseball in his hometown became a reality in 2000. The success of that dream has been intertwined with Springfield College's dream of reviving the baseball program which has been met with great progress and success under Torricelli's coaching.

Six years ago, baseball returned to SCI, coached by Steve Torricelli. The team has gone from two sub-500 seasons to two back-to-back 500+ seasons. Along the way, the dream has picked up speed, acquired two great facilities, graduated many talented players who have gone to other programs, and has also gained recognition in the community with various outreach programs.

Five years ago, Torricelli initiated an annual trip to Arizona with the ball club to participate in a weeklong national tournament held traditionally during Spring Break. The trip has become a great perk for the players exposing them to programs in other parts of the country as well as a great recruiting tool for the program.

Four years ago, the Bulldogs found a new home at Lanphier Ball Park. Over the years, the stadium has been home to several minor league teams and the diamond of many ballplayers that went on to play professionally in Major League Baseball. The facilities and club house provide a top notch atmosphere rarely matched by our opponents and has become one of the top perks associated with belonging to this ball club.

Three years ago, Coach Torricelli was unanimously voted, "Coach of the Year," by the coaches of the Collegiate Conference of Central Illinois. During that same time period in 2003, Torricelli fulfilled another dream by working with the community to offer a series of Summer Baseball Camps for grade school children from the community. The SCI coaching staff, along with other high school area coaches and minor league players, ran a series of camps at Lanphier Ball Park.

Over the last two years, the outreach program has grown to include several sessions for various age groups ranging from grade school children to older high school teenagers – instilling the fundamentals of baseball while giving area youth a fun activity to participate in.

This winter, a Hitting Camp was added to the newly acquired SCI indoor sports facility located in Building 29 at the Illinois State Fairgrounds. The facility was acquired from the former Springfield Rip's and K's and provides student athletes a place to hone their skills during the off season.

Recently, a booster program launched the Dug-out Club that had its first gathering in February

Coaching Staff

with over 200 participants supporting the Bulldogs Baseball Club.

Torricelli's philosophy on sports and academics is clear – his players are students first, athletes second. The success and commitment to Torricelli's philosophy is evident in the number of players that have graduated with academic honors in the conference. The five players in 2002, fourteen players in 2003 and ten players in 2004 set the bar.

What's on the horizon for Torricelli's team this season? To win 30 games, play on the final day of the regional tournament and earn the conference title.

Not only is Steve Torricelli the baseball coach, but he is also the Athletic Director for Springfield College and has been awarded the part-time Distinguished Faculty Award in the past. His experience includes coaching baseball and football where he also served as head coach for both sports at Taylorville High School (1994-99) and served as Assistant Baseball Coach for Sacred-Heart Griffin High School (1988-93). Torricelli was a student-athlete who graduated from Eastern Illinois University. Torricelli studied under coaches Tom McDevitt and Dan Callahan.

The Torricelli family has strong roots to the Springfield area and SCI. Steve shares his life and goals with his family. His brother, Jim, serves as assistant coach. His siblings Tim, Virginia and Jeff also contribute to the support of the club. Their father, James, and their mother, Kathryn, are active in the booster activities along with the love and support of Steve's wife, Gina and their daughters, Olivia and Lauren.

Jim Torricelli

Assistant Coach

For the third season, Jim Torricelli is volunteering to help his brother, Coach Steve Torricelli, with team duties. Jim will coach third base and work with the outfielders, corner infielders and baserunners. He also will assist with fund raising and coordinate recruiting efforts.

He is formerly a standout sportsman who excelled in high school baseball, football and basketball. He graduated from Southern Illinois University as a member of the Saluki football team.

Currently, Torricelli works for the Department of Transportation and is the former assistant and head coach at Sacred Heart-Griffin High School. He also enjoys spending time with his wife, Karen Dusthimer and their sixteen year old daughter, Sara. His interests include movies, hunting and fishing.

Mike Fitzgerald

Assistant Coach

Mike Fitzgerald was born in Savannah, Georgia. He attended Benedictine Military High School where he played baseball (All-State, MVP) and football (All-State, MVP). He attended Middle Georgia Junior College from 1983-84 with a second place finish at the Junior College World Series in 1983. In 1984, Mike was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals. During his career with the Cardinals, he led the Appalachian League in hitting (.364) and was named to the leagues All-Star Team. As a Springfield Cardinal, he was selected for the Midwest All-Star Game and named to Howe News Bureau's Post Season All Star team. Mike also played for the Arkansas Traveler AA where he lead his team in games, runs, hits, doubles and home runs. He led the Texas

League in RBI's (108) and was named to the Texas League All-Star Team. Mike was a member of the St. Louis Cardinals 40-man roster from 1987-1989. While playing for the Louisville Redbirds AAA in 1988, Mike was called up to the St. Louis Cardinals Major League team. Mike ended his career in the Philadelphia Phillies organization in 1991.

Mike and his wife Leann are parents to Allie, Michael and Tyler.

Jeremy Cook

Volunteer Assistant Coach

Duties: Responsible for day to day duties -- works with the outfielders and hitters, sets up and plans daily practice schedules, assists in the monitoring of academic progress for the baseball program and helps run winter and summer baseball camps. Jeremy will also assist the lifting and conditioning programs, coach first base and assist with recruiting and driving duties.

Torricelli's Thoughts: Cookie is a huge addition to the program. We are very fortunate to have Jeremy as a part of our team. Jeremy does everything and anything you could ask for. He brings his knowledge of the game to us by way of Mt. Pulaski High School where he served as an assistant coach to Gail Clark.

Coaching Staff

Mark Clayton

Student Manager

Torricelli's Thoughts: Coach Clayton comes to us from none other than our very own program here at SCI. Mark spent 2 years in the program as our every day right fielder and clean- up hitter. Mark turned down some opportunities to continue playing to concentrate on his education and to begin his coaching career. We are thankful of Mark's energy level and the knowledge that he brings to our players. Mark has spent most of his time as our strength and conditioning coach in the fall and early winter practices. "Trots" has also helped out our outfielders and hitters as he offers a hands-on approach to the finer skills it takes to play at this level. Mark has helped out in the day to day operations and has assisted in our study table sessions.

Ryan Townsend

Assistant Trainer

Ryan arrived in Springfield by way of the state of Nebraska. Born and raised in the cornhusker state, Ryan attended David City High School. Following his prep days Ryan's undergraduate work began at the University of Nebraska graduating with a degree in exercise science. Ryan arrived on the scene in central Illinois while going to graduate school at Illinois State University earning his degree in Athletic Training. Ryan began his career as an Athletic Trainer with Athleticare in the fall of 2000. Ryan is an avid Nebraska football fan who also enjoys outdoor activities. Ryan brings a wealth of knowledge to the program and we are excited to have him on board for the upcoming season. Along with serving other schools, Ryan will serve as a co trainer with Jerry Sullivan at all home games.

Walter "Wally" Phelps, Jr.

Team Statistician

The bulldogs are excited to bring to this years campaign their very own statistician and scorekeeper. Wally will be in charge of all stats and running the scoreboard at all home games. Wally has graciously accepted the chore of audio production for every player as they enter the game. Wally began his part time job as a hobby and has since turned into more of a career or full time job. Wally has worked the clock, kept score, done stats and or coached for a plethora of teams. From 1973 to the present Wally has worked for Griffin, CYO catholic basketball league, Ursuline Academy, Southeast, Riverton tournaments, Sangamon County tournaments, regional tournaments, Robert Morris, LLCC, UIS and Springfield College in Illinois. If there is a local sporting event going on you can rest assured Wally will probably be involved some how. We are very fortunate to be a member of Wally's resume.

Kyle Amerson

Born: 9/28/84

Year in School: Sophomore

Bats: L Throws: R

High School: Sacred Heart Griffin High School

Hometown: Springfield

Parents Names: Mark and Mary Beth

Hobbies: Hunting, fishing and recreational sports

Torricelli's Thoughts: Kyle returns for his sophomore season with great expectation. Kyle spent most of last year as our lead off hitter but could quite possibly move down in the order to the three spot. Kyle is a great outfielder who gets excellent jumps on the ball. We look for Kyle to continue to be our captain in center field taking charge of his fellow outfielders. Kyle is one of three left handed hitters on the roster that will provide some unlikely power from a guy of his size. The one thing holding Kyle back from being a complete player is his arm strength and accuracy. As the dedication to his off-season conditioning reaches new highs, I feel confident that he will correct his weakness. Kyle has earned interest from some next level programs.

Torricelli's Thoughts: The 05 season will be a large challenge for Adam, as he will enter the campaign as one of our conference starters. Adam proved to the entire conference last year that he was a force on the mound posting a 5 and 2 record to go along with a 3.42 ERA. Adam was used in all of the roles a pitcher could be used, as a freshmen, and we felt he handled it very well.

Adam was selected as a team captain for his sophomore year where he will be called on to lead, on and off the field. Adam has taken on the challenges of strength conditioning and we have seen some gains in his velocity and sharper break to his slider. Adam has caught the eye of several division 1 and division 2 four-year schools where we feel he will help some one out right away.

Torricelli's Thoughts: The program is excited about Danny and his upcoming season. When Danny was in high school, he fell under the role of bunt the ball, slap the ball, just get on base and steal kind of guy. While Danny can still provide that role, he has added a second and third dimension to his game. Danny is much bigger and stronger than two years ago which allows him to have more power and the ability to turn on the ball.

"Two Shoes"

has also worked extremely hard on his defensive game. I feel more confident in his ability as well as with his arm. Danny will hit in the top spot in the order or number two spot to take advantage of the pull side hole. We look for Danny to be used primarily as a corner outfielder.

Torricelli's Thoughts: Quinn returns for his final spring season, 2 inches taller and 20 pounds heavier. It will be exciting to watch Quinn this spring as he broke his finger early on this past fall. We feel that Quinn has worked extremely hard on his defense, with extra attention on his throwing technique. Quinn looks to bat in the two, three or five hole for us this spring and be used primarily at third base. He could be found at second or short if the situation calls for it. We will need Quinn to pick up where he left off as second in team batting average and an honorable mention all conference selection as a freshman. Quinn gets better and better every day. I feel that Quinn is a major piece to the puzzle in 2005. Look for Quinn to have big numbers this year.

Torricelli's Thoughts: Chris comes in to his final spring season in the best physical shape in his life. Chris has worked his tail off since day one and we are excited to see how the extra work will pay off for him. V-lo will be used as one of our middle infielders after spending part of his time at first base last year. Defense and arm strength are two of Chris's bigger attributes. We could use Chris in a variety of spots in the order and I guess the early part of the schedule will tell us where that might be. I also feel that Chris is the hardest working player I have ever coached. I don't give out freely this compliment. Chris has put himself in the best situation to succeed which ultimately gives us our best chances to be successful. Like others, Chris has drawn some attention from some next level schools.

Torricelli's Thoughts: Ben returns for his 2005 season with what I feel is a better understanding of the game. Ben will be used this year in the same role as last year, a designated hitter or pinch hitter. This is a very tough and unique role and takes a great deal of preparation and focus. Not to many players have the ability to sit and wait for their situation to come up. Ben could be used as a possible reserve outfielder where we feel he has improved. Ben has a very short compact approach to hitting and we feel that Butch can put up some power numbers for us. Ben is a great student of the game who pays great attention to detail and making himself better. We are confident Butch will come through for us in 05'.

Torricelli's Thoughts: Drew enters his sophomore campaign as the lone returning catcher from last year. The spring should be much brighter for Drew seeing as he started last spring with a pre-season broken wrist. The wrist injury just killed Drew last year causing him to miss all of the spring trip and not getting back to full game shape until late in the year. Drew has spent most the fall and all of the winter strengthening himself and working on his swing. Drew will hit in the middle of the order providing us with run production and power numbers. If not catching, Drew will compete for time with the other right-handed power guys as a pinch hitter or as a designated hitter. We need clutch-type numbers out of Drew this spring.

We really like the mental approach that Will has as a closer or a stopper. He is a much focused, tough kind of kid when the pressure is on. Will spent the fall season nursing a rather sore arm but looks really good in the early weeks of winter practice. Will is most effective when he works ahead in the count and works down in the zone. He has improved a great deal in the two years we have been together and we are anxious for him to prove himself as a conference closer. We feel that Will is a guy who can get it done for us when we call for him out of the bullpen.

Torricelli's Thoughts: Focus, maturity and desire are just a few words that come to mind when I begin to describe Eric Finley. Eric has been very determined about the demands it takes to be a quality college pitcher. We have seen Eric take a new approach in his conditioning program. No longer considered 'fat face' by his buddies, we now see a stronger, firmer south paw. We fully anticipate Big "E" to compete for the role of a conference starter. Eric is coming off the best baseball of his career as he proved himself this fall. Not an overpowering pitcher, Eric will be at his best when he can work quickly and throw his change up in any situation. Eric's velocity is not overwhelming but we feel he can be just as effective when he can throw three pitches for strikes.

Torricelli's Thoughts: I love the way Ando goes about his business. Justin is going to have a break out year for us this year. He has grown a few inches and gained some much needed strength this winter. Ando possesses great hands but unusually big feet. We feel that Justin has finally grown into his body; he seems to have learned the footwork necessary to play second

Ando provides us some extra pop for a middle infielder and we look for him to hit in the meat of the order. I really like what Justin has done for the program and the coaches are excited to see him turn it on this spring. We simply need Justin to make all the routine plays and continue to make those unbelievable plays when he gets the chance.

Torricelli's Thoughts: Clark Miller has put in some time for the bulldog program and we, as coaches, are extremely happy to see his successes form as his final season takes place. We feel that Clark has learned the game of baseball. He's taken what he's been given and found a way to be effective. Clark is one pitcher who can frustrate hitters mainly because he works low in the zone and can throw his off speed pitches for strikes.

When Clark is up in the count, he tends to get in trouble; so, we constantly work on keeping him down in the zone. Clark is a perfect example of what a red shirt season can do for a less physically mature pitcher out of high school. Clark will battle for the role of one of five conference starters for the upcoming spring season.

He will play exclusively in the outfield this spring where he will compliment a tremendous group of outfielders. Cory possesses great speed and an above average arm. We like the fact that Cory is a very intense ball player who has a great on the field work ethic. We feel that Cory can help us by

We like everything that Travis has to offer and look at him as a huge addition to our outfield Corps. "Heck" comes in as an outfielder with great instincts to the ball. We feel that Travis tracks the ball off the bat well and gets great jumps on the ball.

He also has a very strong and accurate throwing arm. Travis spent most of the fall finding a more productive offensive approach. I look for Travis to be used in all three spots in the outfield and will probably hit in the bottom third of the line-up.

We have worked very hard on correcting a few of Brad's flaws in his overall pitching mechanics. With the correction of the minor mechanical problems, I was able to see a vast improvement in Brad. The adjustments have made Brad a more dimensional type of pitcher.

I love

Brad's tempo and fast pace approach and plan to use him in a variety of ways this year. With Brad's tight spin curve ball, we can use him in groundball situations out of the bullpen or as a non-conference mid week starter.

Chris makes history by being the first "cougar" to play for the bulldogs. I love Chris's approach to pitching. Competitive is a great way to sum up "Tex's" approach when he takes to the mound. Chris is one of four lefties on the pitching staff and one of two in his recruiting class. We look for him to be one of our go-to-lefties out of the pen as a long

Torricelli's Thoughts: Dan arrives to the bulldog program after a four-year career at Springfield High School prepped by Coach Jim Steinwart. Dan is the first exclusive knuckle ball pitcher to compete in the Springfield College program. Dan possesses some of the most refined mechanics, in part, to his sweet and easy approach to pitching, but he is not an over powering pitcher. Dan will rely on setting up his off speed pitches, with spotting his fastball and having excellent command of his location. We have seen Dan be very effective when he can use all of his pitches. We will have to play great groundball defense when Dan is on the mound, in part to the type of contact he gives up. We will use Dan in many different roles for us this year.

Travis Meyers

Infielder/Outfielder

Ht: 6'2" Wt: 175

Born: 9/8/85

Year in School: Freshman

Bats: R Throws: L

High School: Chatham Glenwood High School

Hometown: Chatham

Parents Names: Jeff and Julie Donahue

Hobbies: Fishing, camping, outdoors

Torricelli's Thoughts: Travis enters the spring season somewhat of an unknown to some of his teammates and all of his future opponents because of a summer knee surgery. The good news is that Travis will bring to the program what we feel was a missing piece of the puzzle from our fall season. The missing ingredient is a true hitter who not only hits for power, but also for average. Travis has an excellent feel for hitting. We know that Travis will have to battle through his prior medical problems but with a full release from his doctors, we are confident that "T Meyer" will have a promising career for the bulldogs. Travis will be used as an infielder, an outfielder and a designated hitter.

High School: Rochester High School
Hometown: Rochester
Parents Names: Mike and Jan
Hobbies: Poker, TV, sleeping and eating

Torricelli's Thoughts: Andrew comes to Springfield College by way of Rochester High School where he had a stellar career. Andrew will be used in a variety of ways for the Bulldogs in the spring. You could see Andrew playing either an infield position or on the mound. Andrew was used mainly as a shortstop in high school; we look for him to play either shortstop or second base. On the hump you could see Andrew fill the role as our right handed long reliever or as a possible starter as our games pile up in this jam-packed schedule. We feel that Andrew is adapting to the changes we have presented him with in order to correct some flaws and ultimately put himself in the best possible position to make himself as well as us successful.

Jason Hadley

Born: 5/28/86

Year in School: Freshman

Bats: R Throws: R

High School: Taylorville High School

Hometown: Taylorville

Parents Names: Paul and Tammy

Hobbies: Sports

Torricelli's Thoughts: Jason enters the doors at SCI as part of a trio from Taylorville High School coached by Tim Kratchovil. We have seen Jason, slowly but surely, gain confidence in his ability to compete for us on the mound. As Jason consistently improves upon his command and the ability to locate his pitches, he will become even more of a factor for the upcoming spring season. I like Jason's approach to the game and as he is settled into this level, I see promising days ahead. Jason has a great pitcher's frame with long arms and wide shoulders and has room for more maturity and ultimately more velocity. Jason has a very tight spin on his curve ball which I feel best suits him as a short reliever for us out of the bullpen or as a set up guy for lefties.

Bats: R      Throws: R
High School: Taylorville High School
Hometown: Mt. Auburn
Parents Names: Dan and Lisa
Hobbies: Hanging out with friends

Torricelli's Thoughts: "Intense and wanting more from himself" is how I would describe Andy Gregory. Andy will be one of the trios of catchers who will battle each other for playing time behind the plate. Andy has taken care of some off-season conditioning demands and looks better than ever. Andy's ability to catch and throw is by far his best attribute that he brings to the program. Andy has gained the ability to understand our staff and we look for big things out of him this season. We mainly look for Andy to hit in the mid to latter third of the line up to provide some much needed run support. Andy had a very good start to his fall season and we look for him to pick back up for us in the upcoming 2005 campaign. We will use Dan in many different roles for us this year.

Justin Leinberger

Pitcher/Infielder

Ht: 5'9"      Wt: 165
Born: 4/5/86
Year in School: Freshman
Bats: L      Throws: L
High School: A-C Central
Hometown: Chandlerville
Parents Names: Eldon and Dena
Hobbies: Watching TV, fishing and sports

Torricelli's Thoughts: "Boogs" arrives on the campus of Springfield College by means of A-C Central High School and the very first player to play for the SCI program from his high school. We love what Justin can do for us. We will look for Justin to be a member of our pitching staff as well as playing first base. I really like the way Justin handles the bat and I feel very confident in his defensive ability. Justin's off-season medical procedure has set back his arm strength but I think he will be ready to go to the mound when we open up in six weeks. Justin will help us out at the plate because he is just one of three left-handers we have to go to if needed. On the mound, Justin will be used as a short reliever as well as a non-conference starter.

Ryan McCurley

Pitcher

Ht: 5'11"      Wt: 175
Born: 10/9/85
Year in School: Freshman
Bats: R      Throws: R
High School: Chatham Glenwood High School
Hometown: Chatham
Parents Names: Robert and Ki
Hobbies: Golf and video games

Torricelli's Thoughts: Ryan enters the Bulldog program as one of the four former members of the Chatham Glenwood baseball team. Ryan is a very hard-nosed, focused player. We have worked extremely hard this fall and early winter refining his mechanics, hoping to put him in the best possible situation to succeed for us when on the mound. I would consider Ryan very much a student of the game who constantly strives to make himself better. Ryan is a tough competitor when he takes to the field. We love his work ethic and we are sure that all the preparation and dedication will pay off big for him this spring. Ryan will compete for the role as a starter but could easily be used out of the pen in short relieve duties.

Newcomers to the Team

Zac McKavetz

Infielder

Ht: 5'11"      Wt: 185
Born: 8/4/86
Year in School: Freshman
Bats: R      Throws: R
High School: Taylorville High School
Hometown: Taylorville
Parents Names: Ron and Cheryl
Hobbies: Watching sports and video games

Torricelli's Thoughts: "Z-Mac", the final member of the trio from Taylorville High School, brings much needed versatility to the bulldog program. We are very happy with the progress Zac has shown both offensively and defensively. We feel Zac can play second base, third, or shortstop. The off-season has shown to be very promising for him. We feel that Zac is bigger and stronger than when he started in the fall. As we closed out the fall season, it was obvious to the coaching staff that Zac had improved quite a bit in his offensive approach. We feel that Zac has come a long way since day one and we know that he will do what it takes to put him in the best situation to succeed. It has been rewarding to see Zac make adjustments on defense to enhance his versatility.

Casey Erickson

Pitcher/Infielder

Ht: 6'3"      Wt: 185
Born: 8/28/85
Year in School: Freshman
Bats: R      Throws: R
High School: Chatham Glenwood High School
Hometown: Springfield
Parents Names: Bob and Jan
Hobbies: Sports and music

Torricelli's Thoughts: Casey makes history for himself as well as the program by being the first ever player to have been drafted in the major league draft. Casey will be used as a conference starter on the mound and as a corner infielder when in the field. Casey has tremendous command of the zone and can throw three and four different pitches for strikes. Casey can run it up there in the upper 80's and low 90's and can mix in his best pitch, his curveball. Casey had an excellent fall season, proving him a major player in the conference. Casey will also provide for us a power hitter to the line up with gap type ability. Casey will compete with several other guys for time on the infield as well as in the DH role. We look for big things from "Crook" this spring.

Newcomers to the Team

Ty Milner

Catcher

Ht: 5'10" Wt: 180

Born: 8/03/86

Year in School: Freshman

Bats: R Throws: R

High School: Rochester High School

Hometown: Rochester

Parents Names: David and Usa

Hobbies: Baseball, golf and hanging out with friends

Torricelli's Thoughts: Ty rounds out the duo from Rochester High School where he led the Rockets in several offensive categories. We were very pleased with the progress he showed behind the plate in his arm strength and receiving ability. He will battle the other two guys for playing time as well as in the role of a pinch hitter or designated hitter. I feel that Ty has an outstanding approach to hitting and should be a major contributor this spring.

As Ty is getting more accustomed to the young staff, we feel that he will do a nice job calling a game at the college level. Ty appears to have paid considerable attention to the weight room during the break, which will help his all around game.

Summer Baseball Camp

The second annual SCI summer baseball camp took place at Lanphier Baseball Park on June 14th - 18th. The five-day event went off without a hitch despite the constant fear of Mother Nature. We had an excellent coaching staff that has now grown to an outstanding number of 25 area high school and college coaches. A huge thanks goes out to the coaching and support staff that handled this impressive group. The camp saw its numbers jump from 88 to a whopping 160 future all stars. Each day had a different spin to it as we touched on every aspect of the game of baseball over the course of the week. The provided lunches seem to be a hit, with the ribeye steak sandwiches taking honors as the camp favorite. A sincere thank you goes out to Wally Phelps and the entire Torricelli family for their assistance in the daily activities. As popularity grows in our camps, we will be making a few adjustments to accommodate the growing demands. We look forward to seeing all of the campers and any future players the second week of June 2005.

Winter Hitting Camp

This Holiday season the baseball program spent part of the break putting on a series of advanced and youth hitting camps. The two camps were held in the recently acquired indoor hitting facility. The first camp was between Christmas and New Year's and was geared for junior high and high school kids. We had a really nice turn out, working with 42 local and area players. The second camp took place over the Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday. This camp focused on youth, ages 7 to 12 years old. The youth camp was a big success as the numbers indicated. The morning group tallied 52 youngsters and the afternoon group counted 33 up and coming stars. Over both camps, we worked with 127 greats kids. We are very thankful to all of the young men who participated in our camps. A big thanks to the area coaches who helped out this year. I would also like to thank my staff of instructors who gave their time to make the camps happen, coaches Jim Torricelli, Mike Fitzgerald, Jeremy Cook, Mark Clayton, Phil Bigard and guest instructor, Mr. Corey Erickson. Finally I would also like to show my gratitude for all of the hard work my mother, Kathryn Torricelli puts forth to make sure things go as planned. We are looking forward to next year's already.

SCI Gains Wintertime Practice Facility

Bulldogs to use building at Illinois State Fairgrounds

By Dave Kane- Reprinted from THE STATE JOURNAL-REGISTER (Dec. 2004)

Springfield College in Illinois now has an indoor sports facility to use during the winter months, even though SCI student-athletes will need to drive, bike or jog a few blocks to get there.

SCI has signed a lease agreement with the State of Illinois to acquire Building No. 29 on the Illinois State Fairgrounds. The Bulldogs will use the gymnasium area of the building, which is located just north of the Multi-Purpose Arena.

The building, which will be utilized by SCI from November to April, has been used for 4-H activities and also was used by the Department of Corrections. Another recent tenant was Springfield Rips and K's, which used the facility for wintertime baseball and softball.

Steve Torricelli, athletic director and baseball coach at SCI, said the school bought the indoor baseball and softball equipment from – and took ownership of the lease previously held by – Springfield Rips and K's.

"We rented it (the building) from Rip's and K's last year, but then they went into the process of selling their business,"

Torricelli said. "It should really be something else, for indoor hitting, pitching, whatever the case may be."

SCI also has volleyball, golf and soccer programs, and Torricelli said they should benefit from the acquisition as well.

"We also just purchased a bunch of new weight equipment for our whole athletic department, and that's going to be set up out there as well," he said. "We'll probably set it up on the stage area in the gym."

SCI also plans to rent the building to other teams, especially high school teams, at an hourly rate.

"We have some clients on board already," Torricelli said. "We'll have an indoor softball league taking place for eight of the nine weeks in January and February."

Events

"This whole thing is exciting. We also hope to get our camp numbers up because of this."

That includes a winter hitting camp scheduled for Dec. 28-30. Another hitting camp for students in grades seven through 12 will take place Jan. 15-17.

2004 SCI Baseball Team Golf Outing

The '04 Golf Outing was a great time. The fifth annual event took place on October 9 and was held, once again, at the wonderful Edgewood Golf Course. The day went very well. Everyone enjoyed the beautiful weather and the tasty food. The event saw a bit of a change as the morning and afternoon flights somewhat balanced out as compared to years past. The 140+ golfers all received a complimentary official Bulldog Booster t-shirt, breakfast and lunch or lunch and dinner, awesome door prizes, and a variety of course competitions.

We appreciate the 150+ sponsors who advertised with us and we encourage all readers and supporters of the program to consider their business when you have a chance. The winning foursome at this year's event was Dave Manfredo, Joe Robinson, Mike Romer and Jeff Torricelli. The winners received a round of golf in Peoria Illinois at the beautiful Coyote Creek Golf Club and an official team pullover. Rick and Kathy Allison once again donated the round of golf. We also give a huge thanks to our Corporate Sponsors-Havana State Bank and Club 54.

Finally, on behalf of our entire program, we extend our gratitude to our families, friends, volunteers and loyal supporters for everything they do for our program. Without all the backers, alumni, friends and parents we could not put on an event the way we do. Thank you. We look forward to seeing you in '05.

2005 Dugout Club Party

The first annual baseball team Dugout Club party took place February 16 at the beautiful Stella Blue restaurant. An estimated 200 attended. A huge thanks to former SCI assistant coach Vic Lanzotti and his business partner Chris Hanken for the delicious food and the wonderful accommodations they provided.

The overwhelming group of supporters enjoyed watching U of I take on Penn State and taste the spread of food, not to mention having a few adult beverages along the way. We are confident that everyone had a great time at our first Dugout Club gathering. We are already looking forward to next year's event and how to top this year's success. On behalf of the coaches, players and support staff of SCI baseball, thank you for your generous support.

Adding Erickson may put Bulldogs over top

By Hal Pilger - Reprinted from THE STATE JOURNAL-REGISTER (Feb. 2005)

Last year, which was Springfield College in Illinois' second straight winning baseball season, the Bulldogs came within three outs of beating Lincoln Land in the Region 24 championship game before LLCC rallied for five runs in the ninth to win 8-7.

It was the closest the Bulldogs have come to capturing a regional crown in the five years since baseball was reinstated at SCI. Coach Steve Torricelli is hoping the sixth season will put them over the hump.

"We've steadily climbed the ladder from the bottom third of the conference standings to last year getting second in our region," Torricelli said. "And it's such a strong region.

"We're no longer in the early stages. After five years, playing for the regional championship last year proved we're doing some things right."

If the Bulldogs, who finished 29-27 last year, are to get over the regional hump this spring, pitching will be a key. And this season, Torricelli says the Bulldogs will emphasize pitching over simply throwing hard.

"Overall as a group, we've flip-flopped," Torricelli said. "Last year we had a lot of strong-armed, hard-throwing guys who has higher pitch counts on average; this year as a group we're really concentrating on location and first-pitch strikes - kind of reverting back to two years ago."

Being heavily counted on is freshman Casey Erickson, a mainstay for four seasons at Chatham Glenwood High School, where the right-hander set school records with career marks of 39-5, 360 strikeouts, a 1.72 earned-run average and 296 1/3 innings pitched.

A two-time Central State Eight Conference Player of the Year and 2004 CS8 Male Athlete of the Year, Erickson was selected by the Chicago Cubs in the 25th round of the Major League Baseball first-year player draft last June, but he headed for SCI instead of signing a pro contract.

"Casey has earned his way to be a member of the top pitchers in the program," Torricelli said. "He's really developed. He's been able to dedicate himself to just baseball.

"All fall he was lifting specifically for baseball, and having a seven-week winter segment, he's going into the spring season all geared to his baseball. We've seen Casey really refine parts of his game, and they didn't really need much refining. Things like throwing change-ups more often and strengthening his arm just for baseball."

Joining Erickson at the top of SCI's rotation will be sophomore returnee Adam Schneider, a right-hander from Nokomis.

"Adam Schneider's coming off a great season last year," Torricelli said. "He was 5-2 with a 3.42 ERA. He proved he's a mainstay in the conference and the region. Adam's a very solid pitcher for us.

Events

"Early on, we will test the water to see who the other guys will be to step up and get involved with those guys. It'll be kind of a trial basis, but we feel we have four guys who could emerge as the No. 3 and No. 3 pitchers in the rotation."

Two pitchers getting off to slow starts because of training injuries are sophomore Will Bartos (slight ankle fracture) and freshman Dan Walker (broken wrist). Torricelli said Bartos is expected to be out about two more weeks, while Walker may miss at least two more months.

"We've activated (sophomore infielders) Chris Venvertloh from SHG and Quinn Allen from Williamsville as pitchers," Torricelli said.

"They're both strong-armed-type guys who have spent some time on the mound and can add depth."

Offensively, Torricelli believes the Bulldogs are pretty sound.

"We feel we've got a nice blend of hitters and more position players - 16 compared to 15 last year - who all bring something a little unique offensively," Torricelli said.

The Bulldogs return some solid batting averages, led by Allen's .358 (three homers, 37 runs batted in). Outfielders Kyle Amerson (.337) and Danny Midiri (.315) also return, along with Venvertloh (.303), infielder Justin Anderson (.301) and outfielder/designated hitter Ben Butcher (.300).

When it comes to defense, Torricelli talks first about his infield, which features numerous interchangeable parts.

"I feel really good about our infield defense," he said. "I feel we have just a solid corps of sophomores returning (Anderson, Allen and Venvertloh), as well as those freshmen we brought in (Erickson, Andrew Stehlin, Zac McKaverz, Travis Meyers, Justine Leinberger). A lot of them offer great flexibility to play all the positions.

"As far as the outfield goes, it's by far the fastest group of outfielders we've ever put out there, with some great infielders," Torricelli said of a group that features sophomores Amerson, Midiri and Butcher along with freshmen Cory Smith, Travis Heckenkamp and possibly Meyers.

Behind the plate, sophomore Drew Carlock (.288) will be joined by freshmen Andy Gregory and Ty Milner.

2005 Season Outlook

The 2005 season is here and the make up of this ball club is outstanding. It is fair to say that I love this group of guys for a variety of reasons. The level of talent on this team is very high. We have more quality depth in our line up than ever before. We have seen the tides turn over the last couple of years and it is quite exciting to see the image of the SCI program rise in the community and central Illinois. A great deal of credit goes directly to the members of this program. These guys are quality individuals and a tight knit unit. We have some improving to do before it is all said and done but the ability to rise above is within this group of 25 guys.

The coaching staff is fired up over this group. The energy level is at an all time high and we are ready to let the conference know that it was not a fluke to be three outs away from a regional championship as was the case of the 2004 team. It will be the character of these players, their leaders and their coaches to work together, to pull for one another and to strive to make each other better. There is no reason for animosity among them, only the will to do what is asked of them when it is their time to shine. The program enters its sixth year of existence and finishing among the leaders is the only acceptable outcome.

The 2005 roster consist of 25 talented local players. There are 11 returning lettermen from last years 29 and 27 team. We add 14 freshmen to total 25. Last year we set our goals of a repeat 30 win season and a chance to play on the final day of the regional tournament. The goals for 2005 will stay the same with one exception, a conference title.

We have seen the program go from sub 500 seasons to back-to-back 500+ seasons. It will be up to these players to keep the ship headed in the right direction.

Among the 25 players will be 12 pitchers. Our biggest weakness this year will be in our experience on the mound. We return only 4 pitchers from last years ball club. The bright spot is we have changed our look if you will. We are not a big hard throwing staff; we are relying on our location and our command to compensate for our lack of velocity. This staff will throw strikes and work at a defensive friendly pace. This group is young and green but hard working and willing to battle. There are 8 right -handers and 4 left-handers. Three of the pitchers will also see time on the field as position players. We will need to play excellent defense behind this group if we are going to be successful and reach this year

While our pitching staff is young, our infield is almost the opposite. We return three guys who all played considerably last year. I feel that our infield is as good as anyone

The outfield is made up of 6 very athletic guys. We have two returnees who saw ample time last year, which makes this group somewhat experienced. As a whole, this corps of guys is very quick. They all possess average or above average arm strength. We feel that this group has some play-making ability. This group still needs to strengthen their reads and angles to the ball. This might be the fastest group of outfielders we have ever fielded. As the season goes on and we find the right combinations, I believe this group will be very solid.

The catching unit returns one letterman and adds two additional freshmen. This is a very strong group, who has taken on the difficult task of learning a young, new pitching staff. All three of these guys bring individual strengths in the art of catching. This athletic group of guys could also double as DH

Over the fall we peaked early beating teams with wood, as they swung metal. This is directly related to the rise in talent level across the board. We played very well for two thirds of the fall and relaxed the last third. We will have to fight all spring to accomplish our goals.

The off season conditioning seemed to be more of the same in the sense that the guys that enjoy lifting worked -out and those that don

The offense has a nice blend of possibilities. We have speed, power, pop, bat handlers and a few guys that offer the threat of the long ball. We will still stay aggressive in our approach of our offensive strategies when we are in the situation to do so.

The 05

As stated in past media guides, our approach to the game remains the same. We will play the game the way it is supposed to be played. We will respect all, but fear none. We will hustle, our uniforms will be dirty when the game is over. We will play with class and pride stressing fundamentals, responsibilities and positive emotion. Team is the number one word in our program. We are a family and we will always be a family. Our group is extremely close and I know it will pay off in the end.

In 2004 the Patriots shattered the school record book with a 48-8 record and their best ever post season run up to that time, losing in the regional championship game. Shortstop, Dustin Shafer, signed with the Chicago White Sox and 11 patriots signed with four-year programs.

"I'm extremely excited about the opportunities we have at St. Catharine College," noted Patriot

"My goals are always to try to graduate players, find them a place to play, win games and most importantly help my players grow into fine men."

With 43 players signing with four year programs after his first three years, along with 149 wins and 3 professional players, the goals are being reached. "I've had a great group of guys. They've done a solid job in the classroom and on the field. They are the reason 43 guys have signed and the success of this program continues," said Coach Bramblett.

Dan Imlach State Champion!

SCHOOL RECORD HOLDER IN POLE VAULT 16' 6"!

(Sacramento-5/15/05) Shasta College's Dan Imlach cleared 15 feet, 6 inches to win the state title at the American River College in Sacramento. And, as coach Pete Giachetti said, conditions were a little dicey. "We had shifting winds," Giachetti said. "He (Imlach) tried 16 feet, and almost made that, but he's pretty excited. "It was a pretty big thing -- big thing for me, too." Russell Simon took 10th in the discus with a throw of 141-7 1/2. The men's team finished with 10 points, good for 20th place. For the women, which took 23rd with nine points, Janessa Hoppe had the best result with a fifth place in the 3,000-meter steeplechase. Her time was 12 minutes, 7.87 seconds. Katie Wilson leaped 5-0 to take seventh in the high jump, and also took 10th in the heptathlon. Wilson's three events Saturday were the long jump (15-0 1/4 ), javelin (108-11) and 800 (2:53.16). On Friday, her heptathlon events were the 100 hurdles (18.4), high jump (5-11 1/2), shot put (33-81/4) and 200 (29.93). She also competed in the javelin and threw 120-1.

Hoppe & Imlach Win NorCal

NEAR DISASTER BUT ON TO THE STATE MEET!

(Modesto-5/7/05) Shasta College's Janessa Hoppe won the 3,000-meter steeplechase with a time of 11 minutes, 50.10 seconds in the NorCal Track and Field Championships at Modesto Junior College on Saturday. Janessa turned near disaster into one of her finest races. Going over the first hurdle she slipped and ended up nearly fully immersed in the water. She recovered nicely and won the race by 17 seconds! Hoppe also turned a 2:24.87 in the 800, good for sixth, as the Knights finished ninth in the team standings with 35 points. Katie Wilson had a fourth-place clearance of 4 feet, 11 inches in the high jump, giving her a ticket to the State Championships in three events. Wilson took second in the javelin on Friday and was already qualified in the heptathlon. For the men, who took 14th with 20 points, Russell Simon launched the discus 142-7 to take the final state qualifying slot in sixth. One position from an automatic entry, the 4x400 team of Shawn Farrow, Dan Imlach, Jeff Paulissen and Phil Curriel took fifth, but it can still make it if the 3:19.16 is faster than the fifth-place team out of the SoCal meet. Imlach, though, is already through with Friday's win in the pole vault at 15-7. Also just one spot from advancing to state in seventh were Jaymie Wilson (high jump, 4-9) and Michelle Primofiore (shot put, 35-4 1/2). Shasta Coach Pete Giachetti was very pleased with his team's effort, and added most individuals recorded personal bests at the two-day meet.

Five Victorious Knights

WILSON, PRIMOFIORE, AYERS, WILSON & HOPPE

Knight Men Take Second

(Shasta College-4/23/05-Record Searchlight article) The Shasta College women's track and field team won the Golden Valley Conference championships at Shasta – with five athletes. Katie Wilson headlined the Knights' squad by competing in nine events and winning four. Overall Shasta won with 112 points, followed by Butte (88), Siskiyou (36) and Lassen (28). Wilson won the javelin with a 137-foot, nine-inch toss. The throw was good enough for the second best mark in California. She also took the high jump at 5-0 and took part in the winning 4x100 and 4x400 relay team. She took second in the 100 and 400 hurdles. Janessa Hoppe won the 800 meters in 2 minutes, 24.86 seconds, and the 400 hurdles (1:13.78). Hoppe took second in the 400 (1:04.13) and anchored the first-place 4x400 team. Michelle Primofiore was first in the shot put (30-3), discus (90-5) and the hammer (70-5). She was also on the two relay teams. Jaymie Wilson was in seven events, taking the pole vault at 6-0. She was second in the high jump (4-8), and third in the javelin (88-3). And Amee Ayers was second in the hammer (72-2) and was on the 4x100 team. The Butte men's track and field squad won with a team score of 120. Shasta (93) finished second, followed by Siskiyou (76) and Lassen (22). With a 16-6 pole vault, Dan Imlach currently is the leading vaulter in the state. He was also on the 4x400 team. Russell Simon won the shot put (46-3) and the discus (138-4), and took second in the hammer (122-2). Matt Jarvis won the hammer (133-9) and was second in the shot put (41-8). Ty Minto was first in the 110 hurdles in 16.06 and the 400 hurdles (59.26). Mitch McIntyre was second in the 3,000 steeple chase (10:51.19) and third in the 5,000 meters (17:35.07). The men's 4x100 relay team earned its best time of the year (42.55), good enough for second. There will be a seeding meeting today for the NorCal Trials, which will be held Saturday at Merritt College.

Katie Wilson to State Meet

FIRST YEAR HEPTHALON PERFORMER!

(Shasta College-4/14/05) A year ago, Katie Wilson had never been to a track and field meet. After the Northern California Multi-Event Championships on Wednesday, Wilson will be the lone Shasta College athlete to compete in the heptathlon at the state championships. Wilson scored 3,580 points to finish fourth to qualify. She also ran 2 minutes, 54.92 seconds in the 800 and tossed 28-11 in the shot put. Shasta's Ty Minto totaled 5,076 points in the decathlon to finish eighth – two spots from qualifying for state. He ran the 100 in 12.04, the 110 hurdles in 16.58 and the 1,500 in 4:56.6.

Hoppe Sets School Record

BREAKS OLD RECORD BY OVER 28 SECONDS!!

(Stanford Invite-Palo Alto-3/26/05) Shasta College's Janessa Hoppe ran the 3,000-meter steeplechase in 11 minutes, 27.56 seconds at the Stanford Track and Field

Invitational over the weekend, breaking the Knights' record by over 28 seconds. Hoppe's time was good for 14th place, and is the second-fastest junior college time in the state this year. Former record-holder Ciara Harvey, now at Chico State, turned in an 11:17 for 10th. Shot putters Russell Simon placed seventh with a distance of 48 feet, 11 ½ inches, and Matt Jarvis was 10th at 45-2 ½. In windy conditions pole vaulter Dan Imlach placed seventh with a clearance of 15-1.

Knights Do Well at DVC Meet

MCINTYRE LEADS

(Concord-3/24/05) Only part of the Shasta College's men and women's track and field teams participated in the meet at Diablo Valley College Wednesday along with San Jose City College, Merritt and Aasics (for the men). Shasta men came in second with 126 points, and the women placed second as well with 69 points.

Mitch McIntyre placed first in the 3000-meter steeplechase with a time of 10 minutes, 22.2 seconds. Ty Minto took first in the 110 high hurdles at 16.36. Katie Wilson and Jaymie Wilson tied for first in the high jump at 4 feet, 8 inches.

Hoppe 2nd in Steeplechase

IMPROVING KNIGHTS

(CSU-Chico- 3/12/53) Shasta College's Janessa Hoppe ran her first 3,000-meter steeplechase — which includes jumping over a large hurdle in each of the 71/2 laps — at the Wildcat Relays at Chico State on Saturday, and the Knights' trackster did pretty well. Hoppe turned a time of 12 minutes, 9.52 seconds to finish second, giving her one of the top five times in the state this season.

Chico State's Siera Harvey, who went to Shasta and still holds the school's record in the event, won in 11:21. Dan Imlach, the Shasta record holder in the pole vault, took third with a clearance of 15 feet, 1 inch. Other places and team scores were not available, but notable marks include: Mitch McIntyre improved his 5,000 time by 44 seconds with a 16:25; the men's 4x400 relay (Jeff Paulissen, Imlach, Phil Curiel, Shawn Farrow) won its heat in 3:23.41; Katie Wilson improved her javelin distance to 102-0; Ty Mento improved his hurdles times in the 110 high 16:23 and 400 intermediate 59.40; and tearing it up in the Open 100 were Farrow 11.17, Paulissen 11.44 and Cody Frailey 11.53.

Relays, Vaults Excel for Shasta

HOPPE AND IMLACH STAR

(Sacramento-3/5/05) The Shasta College track and field team participated in the Beaver Relays — a non-scoring team meet — at American River College in Sacramento on Saturday. Dan Imlach won individual honors with the highest clearance in the pole vault at 15 feet, and was on the relay-winning vault squad. Janessa Hoppe combined with three Butte College runners to form a Golden Valley Conference 4x1,600-meter relay team, which defeated the other conferences in a time of 22 minutes, 59.65 seconds. Hoppe led off with a 5:30.

Imlach Breaks Record!

FIRST HOME MEET

(Shasta College-Jeffrey Jen, Redding Searchlight-2/25/05) After a year away from competition, Daniel Imlach is literally soaring to new heights. A three-time Northern Section pole vault champion while at West Valley High School, Imlach broke the Shasta College school record in his first competition for the Knight during Friday's home track and field meet. Imlach soared to 15 feet, eight inches on his third and final attempt, breaking the 15-7 mark which Eric Piearcy set in 1987.

Imlach's previous best was 15 feet at West Valley. "We had a bigger pole today and I'm a lot stronger than I was in high school," Imlach said after his record-setting vault. Imlach's record was the highlight of the day as the Knights hosted a rotational meet involving Butte College, College of the Siskiyous, Lassen College and Yuba College. Thanks to its large numbers, Siskiyous won the men's competition with 151 points, followed by Shasta with 141. Butte took third with 123. The Butte women scored 100 points to edge Shasta with 94. Siskiyous was third with 50. After his career at West Valley, Imlach, 20, joined the Army.

However, things didn't work out there because of a knee injury that Imlach suffered in his senior year. His high school coach Scott Fairley then convinced him to take up track again. Already, the decision is paying off. Imlach said he was hoping to go 16 feet on the day, but decided to settle for the school record for now. "I hope to get up to 16-6 this year," Imlach said. "I think that would be enough for a state title. Hopefully, I can continue to go to a D-I school in a year or two. It'll be tough, they go 18 feet in D-I." Imlach's performance stood out, though Knights track and field coach Pete Giachetti was just glad to get some competition in after Shasta's scheduled meet at Santa Rosa was rained out. "I'm pleased we got a meet off and running," Giachetti said. "I was pleased with all of our kids today. We've got some girls who haven't competed in track until today and they did well." Other men faring well was Phil Curlel, who was second in the men's 800 in 2 minutes, 0.07 seconds, Mitch McIntyre who took second in the men's 5000 (17:09.77) and third in the 1500 (4:27.85). A promising sprinter for Shasta is freshman Shawn Farrow, who finished sixth out of 22 runners in the men's 100 meters in 11.53 seconds. Marc Wanaka will return for his second season as the pitching coach after spending one year at the very successful Point Loma College in San Diego. Coach Wanaka states: "Pitching is about proper mechanics, conditioning and balance. The pitchers spend a lot of time getting their bodies ready to compete at a high level. I feel the things that we do now will give us an advantage when it comes down to the end of the year and playoffs. Most pitchers will be feeling fatigue, but our guys will be hitting their peak."

Coach Wanaka is a 1995 Trinity High School graduate from Weaverville, California. From 2000 to 2002 Marc was an assistant baseball coach at New Mexico Highlands University, where the Cowboys went to the Division II West Regional Championships. .....

The 2005 season will have former GVC MVP Mike James take over for Shannon Hunt as the new assistant coach/hitting coach. Hunt was hired to be co-head coach at New Mexico Highlands. "Mike was the best hitter that I ever saw come out of the Golden Valley Conference," said Rupert about Mike James. After playing at Southwest Louisiana, James coached for two years at College of the Siskiyous. "Coach James was the only person I interviewed for the job. He brings a lot of experience to the practice field and his hitting philosophy will bring out the best in our offense," Rupert said.

YADAO WITH A DOUBLE

(Elk Grove-5/15/05) The Shasta College baseball team ended its season dropping the first two games in a best-of-three NorCal Regional playoff match up with host Cosumnes River in Elk Grove. Cosumnes River (29-9) used 20 hits to take a 17-1 Victory Sunday. "We played a good team," Knights coach Brad Rupert said. Shawn Yadao hit a double, then scored on Joe Duvall's sacrifice fly for Shasta (19-17).

Knights Drop First Game

NEED TO WIN TWO STRAIGHT

(Sacramento-5/14/05) Cosumnes River 11, Shasta 0 -- The Knights had six singles from six different players in the opener of the best-of-three series in their NorCal Regional with Cosumnes River (28-9) in Elk Grove. Game 2 is at 11 a.m. today, and the if-necessary match up will follow a 30 minutes after that game if Shasta (19-16) wins.

Four Knights Named All-GVC

SMITH & FASKING LEAD WAY

(Shasta College-5/9/05) Two Shasta College baseball players earned recognition on the All-Golden Valley Conference first team, and two made the second team, coach Brad Rupert said. Pitcher Berek Fasking and first baseman Allen Smith made the first team, and they were backed up by shortstop Sam Bruno and third baseman Joe Duval. The Knights (19-15) also learned they were seeded 15th on Monday. They will take on No. 2 seed Cosumnes River (27-9), the Bay Valley East Champions. The NorCal Regional will be a best-of-three series, which begins at 1 p.m. Saturday in Elk Grove. Game 2 is scheduled for 11 a.m. Sunday, with an if-necessary Game 3 to follow.

Knights Drop Pair

LAST CHANCE FOR TITLE FAILS

(Shasta College-5/7/05-John Ryan Searchlight) The Shasta College baseball team needed to turn two Saturday at home in a doubleheader with Feather River. Sweep the afternoon double dip and the Knights walk away with a Golden Valley Conference title after spending the spring chasing the Golden Eagles by a half-game in the standings. However, Feather River belted that notion out of the park in a hurry, winning the first game of the afternoon 9-4, thanks in part to a pair of deflating, lead-off homers. The Knights lost the back end of the doubleheader 11-8 in 10 innings. The Golden Eagles began the top of the fifth with a blast by left fielder Ryan Wholey, then jump-started the ninth with a towering shot from third baseman Iain Dykins. Wholey did the most damage on the day, going 2-for-5 with two runs and two RBI. Shasta pitcher Michael Miller went four innings, giving up six runs on five hits and striking out none. The Knights took the lead early, going up 2-0 in the first. Lead-off hitter Jon Tenney reached first after getting beamed. Tenney scooted to second on a sacrifice by Kyle Larsen, then scored on Allen Smith's double. Smith came home in the next at-bat thanks to the red-hot bat of Joe Duval. Duval, who went 4-for-5 with a home run and two RBI, slapped out an RBI-single as the Knights appeared poised to roll through Feather River. The next two Shasta hitters grounded out, and the Knights' bats would make little noise until Duval's lead-off jack to left-center in the sixth inning. Feather River's Robby Apo took the win, frustrating Shasta through six innings while sprinkling six hits. Shasta stranded 11 runners in the game, seven over the final four innings -- including leaving the bags juiced in the seventh inning.

Knights Stumble at COR

BAD TIME TO DROP ONE

(Eureka-4/22/05) The Knight baseball team picked a bad time to drop a game to the Corsairs. The Knights rolled to a 17-13 win in game one but managed only four hits in a 2-1 game two loss. The Knights pilled 22 hits in the first game, but managed four in the second. In game one, Shawn Yadao was 3-for-6 with two doubles and an RBI, Kyle Larson had an RBI, Joe Duval was 3-for-5 with a double and an RBI. Sam Bruno went 4-for-6 with a pair of RBI and Tyler Scoggin had a double and four RBI in the opening game for Shasta (15-4 Golden Valley Conference, 17-11). The Knights dropped game two 2-1 despite only allowing the Corsairs two hits in the game.

Knights Sweep Butte, Again

SECOND TIME THIS SEASON

(Oroville-4/16/05) The Shasta Knights continued their winning ways and stayed in a first place tie with Feather River College in the process. The Knights beat Butte College twice on Saturday, winning 9-6 & 6-2. This is the second doubleheader sweep of Butte College this season for the Knights. Matt Frederick was 4-for-5 with a pair of doubles and three RBI and Tyler Scoggin was 4-for-5 during the Knights' game one win. In game two, Shawn Yadao was 2-for-4 with two RBI for Shasta (14-3 GVC, 15-10).

Mr. Smith Goes to Shasta

TEAM LEADER 1st BASEMAN

(Shasta College-Jeffrey Jen Redding Searchlight-4/14/05) Coming into the baseball season, Knights coach Brad Rupert figured he had a pretty good player in first baseman Allen Smith, a freshman from Medford, Ore. The analysis has probably been upped to somewhere around excellent. A number of freshmen have made big contributions offensively for Shasta College, but none more so than Smith. Entering this weekend, Smith is leading the Knights with a .437 batting average and 24 RBI, both third in the Golden Valley Conference. He has emerged as the team's everyday first baseman and has been solid in the field, committing a scant three errors this season. Smith's performance has been one of many reasons why Shasta is gunning for a GVC title. The Knights (14-10 overall) are tied for first with Feather River at 12-3, three games in front of Butte, with 10 to play. Shasta has what Smith calls "a big doubleheader" at the Roadrunners' place Saturday. A sweep would cripple Butte's chances of catching Shasta for one of two conference playoff spots. In Smith's own words, he believes this year "definitely has been a success so far from both an individual and team standpoint." The Shasta College experience so far has been good for him, considering he believes he didn't live up to his potential at South Medford High School. Smith batted .340 as a senior and got some looks by draft scouts and Division III schools. But, he still was looking for a place last summer and decided the JC route was the best way for him. In 87 at-bats, Smith has struck out seven times - the same total as his walks. He even leads the Knights with four stolen bases. Only freshman outfielder Tyler Scoggin (.429, .534 on-base percentage) has been matching Smith's penchant for landing on base. So what turned Smith's hitting around in one season? I struggled a lot with inside pitches in high school," said Smith, who bats left. "I was a streaky hitter, so I shortened my swing to get contact. I now go up with an approach to hit it wherever they pitch to me. If they pitch outside, I'm taking it to left field, if it's inside, I pull it to right." While his results have been good, the 6-foot-2½-inch Smith still wants to fulfill a few goals. One is to help the Knights get the GVC title. Another is to get his education done. Smith says he likely will be back at Shasta College next year in hopes of getting a scholarship to finish his education. Unless he goes into an extended slump, Smith will have a big freshman season to build on. One thing's for sure, he isn't planning on slacking off because of it. "Biggest thing for me after the season is not to get satisfied," Smith said. "I see a lot of people have good freshman years and trail off in their sophomore year. I want to keep working in the fall and put on some weight to add power. I know I have home run potential, but as soon as I try to hit homers, the batting average plummets. I get a lot of doubles and triples and I'm happy being that kind of a hitter."

Siskiyou No Match

KNIGHTS SWEEP, 8-0 & 17-1

(Shasta College-By Jeffrey Jen, Record Searchlight-4/10/05) If Coach Brad Rupert has it his way, the Golden Valley Conference title is going to come down to a May 7 home showdown with Feather River and his Shasta College Knights. "I would love it if it would be decided on the last day in the last inning," Rupert said. His baseball squad is doing its part, clobbering visiting Siskiyou 8-0 and 17-1 in a home sweep on Sunday. Mike Miller tossed a four-hit shutout, striking out nine and walking one, to lead Shasta (12-3 GVC, 14-10) in the first game. The Knights' bats then took charge in the second contest, smacking around 22 hits to continue their weeklong offensive surge. In four games this week, Shasta also swept Redwoods at home on Tuesday, and the Knights have scored 52 runs. Meanwhile, Casey Burton tossed six innings of two-hit ball to earn the victory. Siskiyou didn't get on the scoreboard all afternoon until the top of the ninth of Game 2 when Corey O'Neill scored on a passed ball. The Eagles weren't even in position to score in the opener thanks to Miller, a sophomore left-hander. "My two-seamer was cutting a lot," Miller said. "I had a lot of natural movement on it. Just aimed for the center and let the movement take care of the rest. I also had good control of my slider and change-up today." While Miller, Burton and the rest of the Knights staff were putting the clamps on the Eagles offense, the Shasta bats were lively all afternoon. Shawn Yadao, Joe Duvall and Ryan Schneider all had triples in the fifth inning to blow the first game open. Duvall, Schneider and freshman first baseman Allen Smith all drove in two runs in the victory. The Knights didn't wait long to establish a gap in the second game, scoring three runs in the first inning and two more in the second. After adding one run each in the fourth and fifth, Shasta turned the game into a rout with four runs in the sixth inning, then blasted six more in the eighth. Second baseman Kyle Larsen led the way, going 4-for-6 with three RBI. Duvall was 3-for-6 with four RBI, while Smith and catcher Matt Frederick also pounded out three hits apiece. Ryan Meske, Jon Tenney, Tyler Scoggin and Schneider also had two hits each. The Knights racked up nine doubles in the game. "This helped our confidence as a team," Schneider said. "A lot of guys who haven't been hitting too well were able to step up today, and that should help us down the road."

Rupert is hopeful his team can continue its hot streak on Saturday when the Knights travel to face Butte (9-6, 15-6). However, the Roadrunners are struggling after coming off a 13-0 loss to Lassen on Sunday, dropping them a full three games behind Shasta with 10 league games left. The Saturday doubleheader could give the Knights a chance to put Butte in a deeper hole. The GVC gets two automatic berths into the playoffs, and Shasta entered the weekend a half a game ahead of Feather River with Butte in third. "Siskiyou is done with," Miller said. "Now, we have to go and break Butte or else we'll get broken." Reporter Jeffrey Jen can be reached at 225-8228 or jjjen@redding.com.

Baseball Update

ALVERSON & GIPSON

(Shasta College-4/7/05) The following is an update on how area baseball products are faring in 2005. Ryan Gipson, a middle infielder at Shasta College last year, is now the starting second baseman for 24-4 Oregon State. The Beavers, ranked

23rd in the nation by USA Today/ESPN, have big road games the next two weekends at No. 11 Stanford and No. 9 Arizona. Gipson, a junior, is hitting .278 with six RBI and four steals. Steve Alverson, a relief pitcher at Shasta College in 2003-2004, is 2-2 with a 3.27 ERA and three saves for 11-20 Louisiana Tech.

Redwoods Swept

KNIGHTS OFFENSE SCORES 27 RUNS!

(Shasta College-4/5/05) The College of the Redwoods showed up for a double header at Shasta College on Tuesday and so did the Knight's offense. The Knight's offense scored 27 runs on 24 hits to secure the sweep. Shasta won game one 13-7 and game two 14-8. Kyle Larson went 3-for-6 and Tyler Scoggin had a triple and an RBI as the Knights picked up 10 hits for a Game 1 win. During the nightcap, Shasta put up 14 hits. Scoggin was 3-for-4 with a double and Allen Smith went 3-for-6 with a triple and an RBI for the Knights (10-3 Golden Valley Conference, 12-10) who host College of the Siskiyous at noon Saturday.

Knights Gain Split

ALMOST COMEBACK IN GAME 2

(Quincy-4/2/05) Shasta 7-7, Feather River 1-9 -- Allen Smith drove in three runs and Sam Bruno was 3-for-4 with two RBI as the Knights (8-3 Golden Valley Conference, 10-10) rolled by the conference-leading Golden Eagles (9-3 GVC, 11-13). Shasta ended up winning game one 7-1. Feather River jumped to a 9-1 lead after five innings and didn't look back in Game two, winning 9-7. Shasta pieced together six runs in the top of the sixth, but couldn't finish the comeback. Smith, Bruno and Joe Duval went 2-for-3 with an RBI.

Knights Fall in Quincy

BIG FIRST INNING DOES IN KNIGHTS

(Quincy-4/1/05) The Shasta College baseball team suffered a 13-2 loss at Feather River on Friday to drop out of first place in the Golden Valley Conference. The Golden Eagles scored six runs in the first inning and then had a five-run eighth inning to blow the game open. Feather River improved to 8-2 in the GVC, moving a half a game in front of the Knights (7-2 GVC, 9-9). Shasta got on the board in the third inning when a hits batsman with the bases loaded brought in catcher David Sills. Tyler Scoggin added a sacrifice fly to score Joe Duval in the sixth for the Knights' other run. The two teams play at Feather River in a doubleheader, starting at noon today.

Knights On a Roll

SWEEP LASSEN IN DOUBLEHEADER

(Susanville-325/05) Shasta 15-9, Lassen 9-4 -- The Knights posted a six-run seventh inning for the come-from-behind victory in the opener, then cruised in the second game. Allen Smith went 3-for-6 with a double and four RBI for Shasta in Game 1, then Bryan Barrington went 2-for-3 with a double and three RBI in the finale. The Knights (7-1 Golden Valley Conference, 9-8) will host the College of the Redwoods at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Knight's Drop Butte, Twice!

ALLEN SMITH'S BIG DAY

(Shasta College-By Jeffrey Jen, Record Searchlight-3/12/05) Turns out Allen Smith's worst at-bat of the day gave the Knights the sweep they were looking for. Shawn Yadao scored from third when visiting Butte College threw wide to home on Smith's groundball, giving the Shasta College baseball team a 9-8 victory over the Roadrunners in eight innings on Saturday. Earlier in the day, Berek Fasking threw eight strong innings to lead the Knights to a 4-2 victory. Combined with the back-and-forth finish of what should have been a seven-inning game at the backend of the doubleheader, Shasta improved to 5-1 in Golden Valley Conference play. Smith, the freshman first baseman from Medford, Ore., had a huge day at the plate. He went 4-for-4 in the first game and then got the Knights bullpen off the hook by leading off with extra-base hits to fuel the rallies in the sixth and seventh. Shasta (7-8) twice led Butte, but the pen coughed it up both times. However, the offensive rallies kept the Knights in the game. "In all of my 14 years here at Shasta," Knights coach Brad Rupert said, "that was one of the better comebacks we've had. It was really big to get two wins, especially after losing to Butte on Friday." Yadao, a freshman outfielder from Waimea, Hawaii, was walked by Roadrunners reliever Ryan Cunningham to lead off the eighth inning. He stole second and moved to third on Jeremiah Frey's sacrifice bunt. Facing the top of the order, Butte intentionally walked David Sills and Kyle Larsen to load the bases, bringing up Smith. That shocked Smith, as well as his teammates and Knights fans, considering Smith was perfect on the day -- seven hits and a hit-by-pitch in eight plate appearances. But Smith ended up swinging at the first pitch he saw and hit exactly what the Roadrunners wanted, a grounder to Butte second baseman Justin Comages. Comages, however, rushed the throw to home and Jacinto Rivera's foot came off the plate, allowing Yadao to score. "I was shocked when they did the walks," Smith said. "But it did make sense. I was just looking for something high, so I could loft it into the outfield for at least a sacrifice fly. I got a pitch belt-high, but I swung a little late and got jammed a bit. I didn't see the throw." In the first game, Fasking (3-2) scattered four hits and two runs, striking out five and walking one for the win.

After giving up Drew Churchward's RBI double, the sophomore from West Valley High School retired the next 18 batters. "I didn't even notice I had that going on," Fasking said. "I was caught up in the game, and it being rivalry with Butte and all. Everything felt good for me today. Pretty much, I could throw my pitches wherever I wanted." Jordan Hanslovan came on in the ninth to earn the save. Casey Burton, a freshman from Shasta High School, took the mound for the Knights in the second game and struggled early with his control. However, he left with a 2-1 lead after five. But the Shasta pen couldn't make it hold up.

Garrett Robathan gave up a one-out, sixth-inning solo homer to Butte's Mario Lewis to knot things up. Three straight hits and two runs followed before Blake Cull came in to get Shasta out of the inning. Smith led Shasta's comeback with a lead-off double down the rightfield line. Ryan Schneider and Sam Bruno each had two-run singles to put the Knights up 6-4. Hanslovan came in to try his second save of the day, but all three runners he faced got on base. Steve Chmiel relieved Hanslovan and allowed a two-run bases-loaded single to Matt Kavanaugh. Still, the sophomore nearly got out off the inning but Bruno's throw to first on a potential double play hopped over Smith's glove, allowing two more runs to score. Smith came through with a lead-off triple to deep right-center and Joe Duvall followed with an RBI single, then advanced to second on one of Butte's six errors in the game. Matt Frederick and Schneider had consecutive deep flyouts, allowing Duvall to tag twice and score to tie the game at 8.

Shanghai Eagles Visit Shasta

CHINA BASEBALL ASSOCIATION

(Shasta College-By Jeffrey Jen, Record Searchlight-3/9/05) They came, they saw and they got conquered by a bunch of Knights. The Shanghai Eagles, one of six teams in the China Baseball Association, have been touring the western United States to experience college-level pitching in the founding nation of the sport for the past two weeks. The Eagles got plenty of experience as eight pitchers combined to lead Shasta College to a 6-0 win Wednesday. Shasta became the seventh opponent of what has become an eight-game, 15-day tour for the Eagles -- University of California at Davis is the last stop -- when an opening developed and Knights coach Brad Rupert was contacted on Tuesday to see if his team could squeeze in a game. For Rupert, it was a chance to get in a mid-week exhibition when the Knights usually play games on Fridays and Saturdays. For his players, it was an opportunity to play a unique opponent. "We definitely didn't know what to expect," said Blake Cull, Shasta's starting pitcher. "It was just good to see what other nations are playing like." Knights second baseman Kyle Larsen said. "Their pitching wasn't anything we hadn't seen, they just hit their spots a lot and hid the ball. I was impressed with their BP (batting practice), but I guess they didn't expect much from our pitchers." There were some lowered expectations going on since many of the Knights initially thought they would host the Chinese national team, which is preparing for the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing. Five Eagles are on the national side, but were not on this trip. So instead of playing the national team from the People's Republic of China, Shasta faced a depleted and weary Eagles team on an extended road trip. Still, Shanghai did provide the Knights with some challenge early on.

Shasta went up 2-0 in the bottom of the first inning when Kyle Larsen singled and scored off an error on Allen Smith's grounder. Smith came home on Tyler Scoggin's sacrifice fly. However, the Knights scored only one more run off starting pitcher Chen Hai Feng, an RBI double in the fourth by catcher Teddy Holmes. Feng used a different windup than many Shasta batters were used to, hiding the ball until the last possible moment before whipping it overhand to the plate. "He was throwing like 88 (miles per hour) and he had a good slider,"

Knights assistant coach Marc Wanaka said. "It took a couple of innings to get used to his delivery." Cull was the lone Shasta pitcher to go more than one inning, pitching two. He got into trouble in the top of the second when a walk and two singles gave the Eagles a bases-loaded, no-outs situation. But, Cull struck out the next two and got a flyout from Eagles leadoff hitter Mao Di to end the inning. Shanghai never got more than four batters in an inning the rest of the game. Eagles coach Zhu Mu De has been hoping the trip would help his team improve offensively by seeing live American-style pitching. Translator Robert Yao said, "The pitching in American baseball is much higher than in their league. If they can hit American college pitching, then they can hit whatever pitching is back there."

When Yao asked Zhu how his team's hitting was against the Knights, the coach shook his head and answered in Chinese: "Not good." Shanghai's pitching, however, was much better. It kept Shasta in check until the seventh inning. Matt Fredrick singled before both Holmes and John Weibling got on with bunt singles. After Fredrick was forced out at home on Shane Van Zant's grounder, Jon Tenney struck out, then Allen Smith delivered a two-run single and Joe Duvall added an RBI single to make it 6-0. After two more scoreless innings, Shasta had handed Shanghai its seventh loss in seven games, yet many players still thought well of the experience. "It was good for us and they were a good team," Cull said. "It was something that I'll never forget. "It's not every day when you play a team from China." Reporter Jeffrey Jen can be reached at 225-8228 or jjjen@redding.com.

"Xie xie"

CHINESE BASEBALL ASSOCIATION TEAM

(Shasta College-Jeffrey Jen's Column Redding Searchlight-3/10/05) Walking out onto the Shasta College baseball field on Wednesday was an odd feeling. The Knights were playing ... a team from China. A team from my parents' homeland. It was exciting for me, and also a bit nervous. Despite my Chinese heritage, I only had a few words of the Mandarin dialect down pat. This team was the Shanghai Eagles, one of six in the China Baseball Association. The CBA is supposed to start its fourth season if existence next month, and Eagles' coach Zhu Mu De thought it would be a good experience to battle American colleges beforehand. This game came up quickly, so quickly that many Knights were still under the impression they were facing the Chinese national team. They weren't. I don't know too much of China, having been born and raised in the States and east of the Mississippi at that -- but I knew enough to know that a baseball powerhouse it is not. Heck, I called my dad later on Wednesday. He's the international traveler of my family, yet when I told him about who I covered on Wednesday, his response was, "I didn't even know Shanghai had a baseball team." Baseball still ranks down the list in the Chinese pantheon of sports. I asked Zhu what was the biggest sport in China. He answered soccer. Then, it was basketball (thanks to someone named Yao Ming). Then, he listed ping-pong, badminton and volleyball. While Zhu says baseball is growing in China, it sounds like it still isn't too far ahead of Chinese checkers. Hence, this trip to see how American baseball is played. So, I applied what little Chinese knew: I started with my greeting of "Ni hao ma" (how are you), and made sure to say "xie xie" (pronounced: sheah-sheah; thank you) after interviewing the Chinese coach and a player. "Zai jian" (good-bye) was even at the tip of my tongue, prepared upon my departure. The Shanghai Eagles were tired from traveling and fell to 0-7 in their eight-game trip, while Shasta played everyone a bit here and there ... just for the experience. I eventually talked to the Eagles' best player, a 28-year-old third baseman named Qu Wei Feng, who once played on the Chinese national team. Through translator Robert Yao, I asked what he learned about his team's trip, and he responded that he was impressed with how dedicated and hard working the Americans were at honing their diamond games. Everybody gained something or had a good time. Knights pitcher -- and West Valley High graduate -- Berek Fasking was delighted about Shanghai's mascot; Shasta second baseman Kyle Larsen realized that Chinese players aren't like Seattle Mariners outfielder Ichiro Suzuki (who is Japanese, by the way); and the Chinese squad furthered its education. Me? I got to use my very limited Chinese vocabulary for some notebook fodder. Jeffrey Jen's college notebook runs Thursdays. He can be reached at 225-8228 or at jjjen@redding.com.

Shasta Sweeps GVC Opener

TAKES THREE STRAIGHT FROM COS

(Weed-3/8/05) The Shasta College baseball team won a Golden Valley Conference doubleheader against Siskiyous in Weed on Sunday, taking the first game 16-2 and the second 4-1, to complete a three-game sweep of the Eagles. Right-handed pitcher Berek Fasking (West Valley, 2003) went the distance in a five-hitter with five strikeouts to get things started off on the right foot for Shasta (3-0 GVC, 5-7).

Good Start

FASKING PITCHES KNIGHTS TO WIN

(Fresno-2/3/05) The Knights opened their season with a 3-1 win over Mission College in the Dave Alexander Memorial Tournament in Fresno. Shasta jumped out early by scoring two runs in the first inning, including an RBI double from Bryan Barrington. Berek Fasking earned the win and Garrett Robothon picked up the save for Shasta, which plays Fresno City at 3 p.m. today.
